

Creative Writing workshop at the Blue Bank, Pingeyri 28 February - 3 March 2019

PROGRAM

Thursday 28th of February

Getting Started, 17:00 - 19:00

This workshop will provide a lively and active start to your writing. In a supportive and attentive environment, you will be introduced to a range of writing methods designed to inspire and provoke you to put your memories and experience on to paper.

Dinner at Simbahöllin café, 19:30

Friday 1st of March

Finding your voice I, 10:00 - 12:00

Objects, photographs, memories will be used to help you develop your distinctive voice.

Lunch at Simbahöllin café, 12:30

Finding your voice II, 16:00-18:00

Dinner at Simbahöllin café, 19:00

Saturday 2nd of March

Sense of Place I, 10:00 - 12:00

In this session you will explore Ísafjörður and capture your response on paper. Through a series of writing opportunities, you will be invited to discover the town: its people, traditions, history and secrets.

Lunch at Simbahöllin café, 12:30

Sense of Place II, 16:00-18:00

Dinner at Simbahöllin café, 19:00

Sunday 3rd of March

On Your Way I, 10:00 - 12:00

Extracts from leading travel and nature writers will provide the starting point for you to shape your own piece of writing inspired by Ísafjörður. Whether it is a blog, series of poems or prose piece, you will be given a chance to edit shape and share your work. You will leave with a polished piece of writing in your notebook, and vibrant memories of this beautiful working town.

On Your Way II, 14:00-16:00

Trip to Ísafjörður, 17:00

Dinner at Heymabyggð 18:00

Open Night at Hversdagssafn - Museum of Everyday life, Ísafjörður 20:00 - 22:00

This informal showcase event will give all participants an opportunity to read or exhibit their work, talk about writing and the town itself.